CHUGACH GOVERNMENT SOLUTIONS LLC HIRES BRIAN D. KNAPP AS DIRECTOR OF GOVERNMENT RELATIONS

(Anchorage, Alaska) – Chugach Government Solutions, LLC, (CGS) welcomes Brian D. Knapp as Director of Government Relations. In this role, Knapp will advocate and protect Chugach’s interests by building and nurturing relationships with Congress, the Executive Branch, and Federal Agencies.

Knapp began his career as a Federal civil servant working at the Defense Department (DoD). Over an eighteen-year period, Knapp managed portfolios related to defense strategy, foreign military sales, and multilateral diplomacy. For several years, Knapp was a DoD congressional liaison to the U.S. House and Senate, developing and advocating positions on security cooperation. He has extensive experience coordinating initiatives among Federal agencies, including with the U.S. Department of State and the Office of Management and Budget.

Most recently, Knapp served as a Vice President at The Cohen Group (TCG), a prestigious international consulting firm. At TCG, he successfully advised and guided Fortune 500 companies in legislative campaigns, business development, strategic planning, public policy, and association outreach.

“Brian will lead our long list of priorities in Washington, D.C., and in Alaska. He skillfully navigates the political realm and will be a strong advocate for CGS.” said CGS President Tim “Hoops” Hopper. “Brian’s knowledge of the 8(a) program and government contracting will benefit CGS and our continued growth among our federal clients.”

Knapp attended UCLA as an undergraduate and holds a Master of Business Administration from Georgetown University and a Master of Public Policy from Harvard University. His wife teaches kindergarten in Fairfax, Virginia and his son attends university in Philadelphia.
